LEGAL SERVICES FOR AGRIBUSINESS LENDERS

Jeffer Mangels Butler & Marmaro LLP (JMBM) is a top California law firm that provides a full range of legal services tailored to meet the special needs of agricultural industry lenders. We have decades of experience in ag finance and loan workout issues that are critical to the agribusiness industry today.

FINANCE

JMBM's banking and finance expertise includes the representation of lenders in agribusiness loan and credit transactions, asset-based lending, accounts receivable financing, inventory financing, factoring, term loan lending, letters of credit (standby and direct pay), loan restructuring and workouts. We represent lenders in agented, syndicated, participation and other loan transactions. Our lawyers lecture nationally to lending organizations and bar associations and have substantial and nationally recognized UCC and real property lending experience. One of our partners is the past chair of the California State Bar's Committee on Agribusiness, and is a charter member of the Committee.

INSOLVENCY AND WORKOUTS

JMBM has significant expertise in working out troubled agriculture loans. We have deep experience with respect to pre-bankruptcy workouts, receiverships, collection of defaulted loans, complex bankruptcy liquidations and reorganizations within the agribusiness context. We are experienced with PACA, PSA and producers lien law issues (one of JMBM's partners tried and won the leading landmark case on the California producer's lien law).
